Caldwell's New Church.

The handsome new Presbyterian Church, of which Rev. C. T. Berry is pastor, has been completed at a cost of $65, 000 and is now used for public worship. The dedication has not yet taken place. The edifice, of Gothic architecture, is built of sand-stone from the Centerville quarries. The main Church building is 60x89 feet, and 40 feet high from floor to ridge angle, with seating capacity for 850 and aditional for 200 to 300 more. The lecture room adjoining the rear is 38x80 feet, two stories, built of same material, in architectural symmetry with the Church. It furnishes on first floor prayer meeting room, ladies' parlor, pastors' study, dressing rooms and conveniences, and on second floor a large Sunday School room with lofty ceiling, an infant doors, and a Bible Class room. Stained light and add greatly to the ornamenta- fancy articles purchased during the present month, tion. The whole is heated by three large SILES, SHAWLS AND DRESS GOODS, furnaces and lighted by gas. It will stand back of the pulpit, while the TABLE DAMASES, WINE CLOTHS AND DOYLIES, performer will sit on a level with the Piano, Organ and Table Covers, pews immediately in front. The spire SKIRTS, CORSETS AND HANDERCHIEFS, rises to 170 feet from the ground and can Kid, Caston, and Cloth Gloves, be seen 25 miles distant. It is designed NUBLAS, SCARFS AND JACKETS, to have a large bell and a town clock. THE "WENCK PERFUMES," The furnishing of the church is due to COLLARS, CUFFS AND RUCHINGS, the untiring labors of the ladies.

-The religious interest in Port Jervis, which has heretofore centered in the Methodist church, has become general and all the churches are now holding special services. In the Methodist church 100 converts per week have been made for two weeks. On Sunday a large number joined the church. The Presbyterian church has also received a large number of converts.
